WHEW! EARTHQUAKED! The Democratic Majority In Kentucky Swept Away.

BRADLEY ELECTED GOVERNOR BY 10,000 OR MORE MAJORITY.

Louisville Went 3,600 Republican and Even the Second District Slumped.

BREATHITT DEFEATS LINN BY 400 MAJORITY.

The Legislature Republican.

The following is a list of the Republican state officers who will enter upon their duties Dec. 10: Governor, Wm. O. Bradley. Lieut. Governor, Wm. J. Worthington.

Secretary of State, Chas. Finley. Attorney General, Wm. S. Taylor. Auditor, Samuel H. Stone. Treasurer, Geo. W. Long. Supt. of Schools, Wm. J. Davidson. Com. of Agriculture, Lucas Moore. Register of Land Office, Chas. O. Reynolds.

They all belong to the white wing of their party.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Republicans carried New York state by 80,000 plurality, New Jersey by over 25,000, Maryland by 10,000 and captured Kentucky. Besides swinging the states over into the Republican column, they increased their usual majority in Massachusetts, Ohio, Iowa and all other states where elections were held. It was a Democratic Waterloo. Tammany elected her local ticket by about 20,000, and New York City went Democratic for secretary of state by 41,000, but the Republicans came down to the bridge with over 100,000 votes to spare. In the Tenth congressional district Amos J. Cummings, Democrat, was elected, but his success was plainly due to his personal popularity.

Of the 50 senators in the state, Democrats elected only 14 and of the 150 assemblymen only 51.

The senate elected will have part in the selection of a successor to David B. Hill and it is plain he will not be a Democrat. Republican gains were general all over the state. In this city and Brooklyn Republican senators and assemblymen were elected where Democrats have been returned year after year. In Brooklyn a Democratic mayor was beaten by a narrow plurality.

THE NEWS CLOSER HOME.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 6.—The story of yesterday in Kentucky is much like that of a year ago. It is something in the nature of another landslide. Old Democratic strongholds have gone Republican, while others have suffered a serious demerit in their accustomed majorities. Returns from over eighty counties, including

Jefferson, give Bradley a lead of about 4,000. Among the counties not reported are some strongly Democratic and others strongly Republican. At the Republican headquarters claim the state by 15,000 and the lower branch of the legislature by 5 to 6 votes

The Results In Brief.

MARYLAND. Entire Republican state ticket elected, and Legislature Republican on joint ballot. Senate 15 Democrats to 11 Republicans; House 68 Republicans to 24 Democrats. Senator Gibson, Dem., will be succeeded by a Republican.

NEBRASKA. Republican by 10,000 majority. Silver wing of the Democratic party outvoted by the Cleveland wing, there being two tickets in the field.

MISSISSIPPI. Democratic majority of 30,000 for McLaurin, Dem., over Burkitt, Populist. Legislature increased Democratic majority.

NEW YORK. State Republican by 67,000 majority. Both branches of the Legislature Democratic. Tammany ticket elected in New York City by 16,000 majority.

NEW JERSEY. Griggs, Rep., elected Governor by 27,000, the first Republican governor in thirty years. Republicans have the Legislature also.

PENNSYLVANIA. Democrats get one of the Superior Court Judges, Peter P. Smith. State Republican by 170,000 majority.

UTAH. Republicans elect State ticket and Legislature. This gives them two Senators.

KANSAS. Republicans carry the State over the Populists by 40,000 majority.

IOWA. Republican majority 60,000. General Assembly overwhelmingly Republican, the majority being 96 on joint ballot.

VIRGINIA. Democrats elect 34 out of 40 Senators and 76 out of 100 Representatives.

MASSACHUSETTS. Greenhalge, Republican, elected by 65,000 majority.

ILLINOIS. Republicans carry Chicago by 30,000 majority. W. F. L. Hanley, a free silver Republican, elected to Congress in the 18th district.

Breathitt and Linn.

The race for Circuit Judge in this district went the same way as the State. James Breathitt defeats L. C. Linn by the following vote, majorities only being given.

The County Returns.

It has been very difficult to obtain the figures from the county race. The County Clerk says he has nothing to give out and we have been compelled to rely upon our own unofficial returns, which are not complete. Those marked with an asterisk are majorities only. The missing precincts will add about 400 votes to each total without changing the majority.

THE LEGISLATURE IN DOUBT.

The most careful estimates shows the Republicans have elected about fifty members of the lower house, and the returns show the Democratic representation to be forty-one. There are nine legislative districts that are unreported. In the last House these districts were represented by Democrats. If the Democrat is elected in every one of them the best the Democrats can do will be to make a tie in the lower house, Republicans and Democrats each having fifty members.

For the upper House nineteen Senators were chosen yesterday. Ten of these are Democrats, and there are nineteen hold-over Senators, five of whom are Republicans and fourteen Democrats. This will make the vote in the Senate, Democrats 24, Republicans 14, and on joint ballot stand: Democrats 65, Republicans 64, doubtful and unreported districts 9.

Until those nine doubtful districts are officially reported it will not be known whether this Legislature will send a Democrat or a Republican to the United States Senate.

The Democrats have elected these members in the following districts: Anderson, Jno. T. Stout; Ballard, Chas. Wickliffe; Barren, J. M. Richardson; Bracken, J. B. Hiles; Bourbon, Jno. T. Hinton; Boyle, B. K. Hay; Bullitt, R. V. Norman; Calloway, A. D. Thompson; Carroll, B. F. Furnish; Clark, J. D. Willis; Clinton, Alvin Bertram; Crittenden, T. J. Nickles; Daviess, W. A. Baird; Owensboro, A. C. Thomkins; Floyd, John Johns; Franklin, Jas. A. Violett; Fulton, J. C. Speight; Grant, W. H. Daugherty; Graves, J. E. Robbins; Hardin, C. W. White; Harrison, M. C. Swinford; Henry, W. P. Thorne; Jessamine, R. S. Perry; Louisville, 4th district, A. J. Carroll; Larue, R. H. Moss; Lyon, N. N. Rice; Marion, Chas. Spalding; Mason, Jas. E. Cahill; Mercer, Morgan Chinn; Nelson, Isaac Wilson; Nicholas, J. C. Gillespie; Oldham, W. O. Coleman; Owen, S. P. Witt; Scott, J. H. Hamon; Shelby, P. J. Fore; Simpson, J. W. Dinning; Union, W. M. Berry; Warren, W. L. Gossom; Bowling Green, Nerge Clark; Woodford, Jno. A. Steele. These make a total of 40.

The Republicans have the following: Adair, L. T. Neat; Allen, J. H. Gilliam; Bath, Barnes; Bell, T. S. Ward; Boone, Wm. Metcalfe; Boyd, H. H. Gambill; Breathitt, Jas. G. Bailey; Breckenridge, Chas. Blanford; Butler, N. T. Howard; Caldwell, R. R. Morgan; Campbell, W. H. Lyons; Newport, Geo. Lieberth; Carter, John Davis; Casey, Fred Grider; Christian, C. M. Brown; Clay, H. C. Baldwin; Estill, Green Garrett; Fayette, Thos. L. Walker; Lexington, Wood Dunlap; Fleming, C. L. Hinton; Garrard, Wright Kelly; Grayson, J. H. Rice; Green, J. W. Prewitt; Greenup, D. J. McCoy; Hancock, Jack Lindley; Hart, Jno. B. Carpenter; Henderson, H. M. Ball; Hopkins, R. K. Graham; Jefferson, R. E. Speed; Louisville, Andrew Thompson, W. H. Woolford, C. S. Dodson, J. C. Freeman, S. M. Carson, W. H. Stiglitz; Johnson, W. W. Greer, Knox, W. R. Black; Laurel, Wm. Whittaker; Lewis, A. D. Politt; Lincoln, B. B. King; Logan, J. B. Coffman; Madison, E. T. Burnam; McCracken, J. H. Ashcraft; McLean, Adams; Metcalfe, M. T. Flippin; Muhlenberg, H. C. McCracken; Ohio, C. M. Barnett; Pike, Jno. E. Ratcliff; Pulaski, Jno. A. Jasper; Todd, Walker Wilkins; Trigg, G. P. Thomas; Washington, J. H. Morgan.

This gives them 52 certain out of 100, which insures the organization of the House. There are 48 districts yet in doubt, not included in the lists above. They have been Democratic, but if all of them remain so

CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN HAS IT.

Suicide—Sudden Death—Committee Organized—Walking to Atlanta—Graham Arrested—Clubs Depart.

The Committee Organizes.

The newly chosen Democratic Committee met for organization Wednesday afternoon. About fifteen members were present. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Geo. E. Gary, of the old committee. After some discussion it was decided to proceed at once to organization without waiting for the attendance of the absent members at a subsequent meeting. Judge T. J. Morrow was elected chairman by acclamation and Mr. W. R. Howell was chosen secretary with the same unanimity. There were not many changes in the personnel of the committee. The new members are T. J. Morrow, W. R. Howell, Geo. Bradley, W. H. Faxon, G. W. Fox and W. L. Kelly. Several changes will be recommended in the hold-over members where elections were not held, at the request of sitting members who want to retire. Among those agreed upon were Ernest Steger, Longview; J. B. Walker, Brent's; Thos. Dunning, Bainbridge; M. A. Mason, Beverly, and Ben Carroll, at Perry's. The members present were not discouraged by the late defeats, but several ringing speeches were made expressing confidence that with good management and a close organization the party would be stronger hereafter from having been chastened and purified.

They're Off for Mississippi.

The Christian County Hunting Club left for the Mississippi bottoms Wednesday morning, for their annual fall hunt. Following is a list of those who will engage in the sport this time: Capt. S. R. White, Jas. S. Parrish, W. W. West, J. K. Caudley, Austin Peay, W. D. Garnett, B. J. Garnett, W. A. Lowry, Wat Hart, Lyman McComb, Pete Barker, Walter A. Radford, F. S. Beaumont, Henry Ransom, Robt. Garrett, and Dr. Cradley, of New Providence, Tenn. The party got aboard at Pembroke at 6 o'clock, where three cars—a passenger coach, stock car and gondola, were sidetracked for them. The club took along 5 negro servants, 35 dogs, two wagons, 16 horses, four mules, provisions to last three weeks and ammunition sufficient to kill the surplus large game of that state. They were scheduled to arrive at the "happy hunting grounds" at noon yesterday and if they were on time, took a little outing in the afternoon. They are camped on the Mississippi river, where game is reported plentiful. The club will be absent the balance of the month and some fine sport is promised them.

The Earthquake Did It.

The well known spring known as the Bluff Spring, about 8 or 10 miles northeast of town, was stopped from running by the earthquake of Oct. 31. The spring has been running constantly for 98 years within the memory of white men, and was never known to go dry before. It was running as usual on the evening of the 30th ult, but within three hours after the shock the next morning it ceased to run and has been dry ever since. The stream was not large, but came out with great force from a crevice in a seemingly solid bluff of rock. It is situated near the residence of Mr. Gus Robinson.

Walking to Atlanta.

Jno. L. Grimes, a Chicago barber, accompanied by his wife, passed through the city Wednesday en route to Atlanta on foot. They are making the trip for the novelty of the thing and register at each newspaper office in towns they pass through. They started from Chicago Oct. 15 and arrived here in good condition. They will go via Nashville and Chattanooga. Grimes is a young man of genteel appearance and his wife is a robust young woman who appears equal to the task they have undertaken. They are making the trip on a wager of $500.

John Dawson Dead.

CADIZ, Ky., Nov. 7.—Mr. John W. Dawson, of near Roaring Springs, died rather suddenly Monday evening, aged 65 years. Mr. Dawson was a well known politician of the Jeffersonian type of democracy and in earlier days did valiant service for the party. He was in his usual good health until a few hours before the summons came. He belonged to one of the best families in Trigg county.

Clarksville Suicides.

J. B. Waide, who for the last few months had been living in Clarksville, committed suicide Monday, in Lebanon, Tenn. He shot himself through the head with a pistol. Waide left a note behind, which reads as follows: "A common fool is a public nuisance, an idiotic fool is to be pitied and an ill-round fool has no business in this world and should take the shortest route out."
